

CREATING AN EFFECTIVE ELECTORAL RESULTS

1. Identify a single, measurable outcome with a realistic "stretch goal." (Example: "Increase the number of people who vote in the 2010 election by 5%")

2. Identify a single, measurable outcome with a realistic "stretch goal." (Example: "Increase the number of people who vote in the 2010 election by 5%")

3. Identify a single, measurable outcome with a realistic "stretch goal." (Example: "Increase the number of people who vote in the 2010 election by 5%")

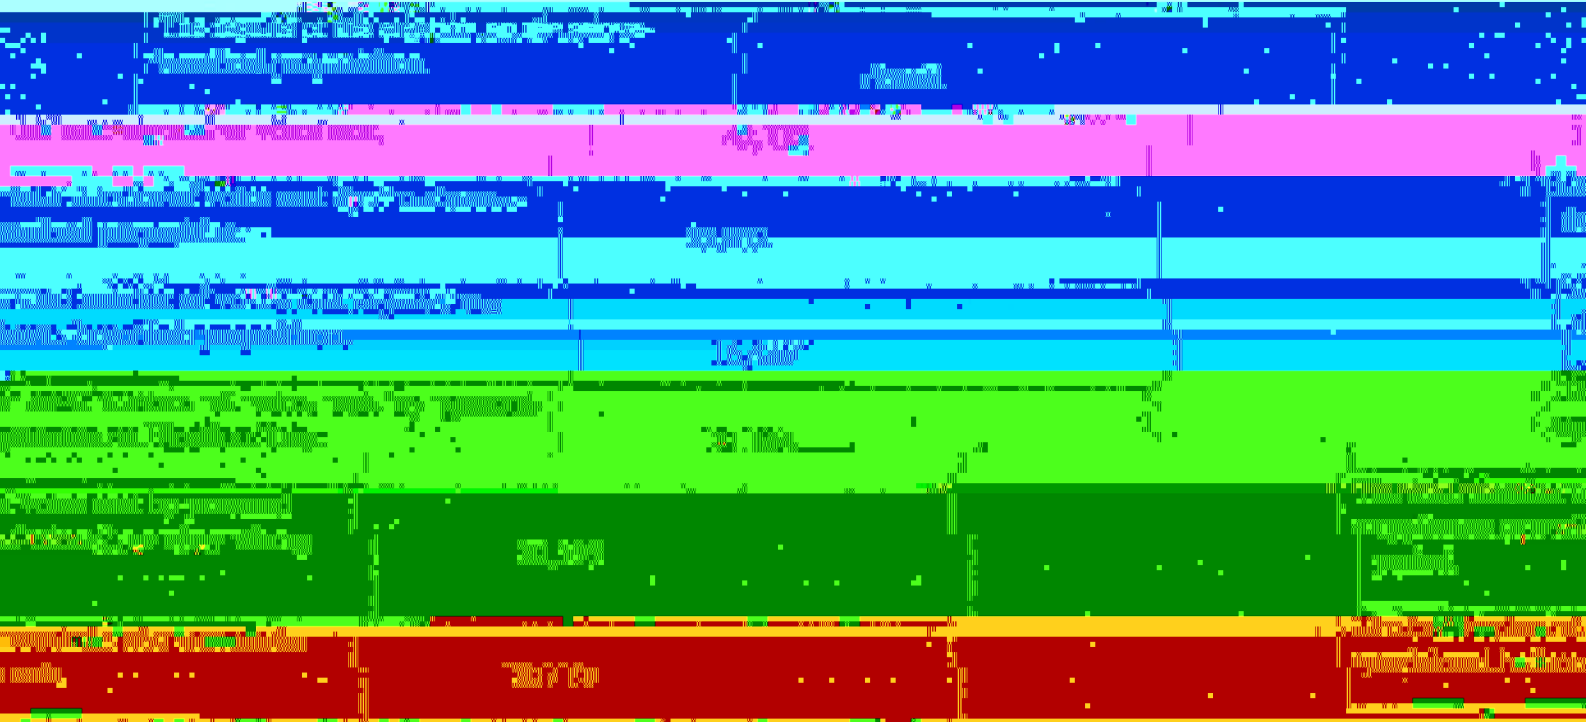

4. Identify a single, measurable outcome with a realistic "stretch goal." (Example: "Increase the number of people who vote in the 2010 election by 5%")

EXHIBIT A

Electrical Diagram

WATER SYSTEM

Election Results

The results for the election on the above

Electoral Results

Proposition 2

The results of the election on the above-described proposition are:

Passed

65.5%

34,734

17.1%

of votes cast by personal return

appearance of the

Election Results

Proposition D

